

Visions of Bob

©2015 Kraig James Music

Verse 1:

You started on burgundy before you turned New York blue,
While you were crawling right up cold Lake Avenue.
With Ramona and Mr. Jones here in Duluth.

Verse 2:

Where the chilly winds blow, up near the borderline,
And the wheel still spins, a blowing in a-changin' time.
If it's alright with Ma, we'll just keep on tryin'.

Chorus:

Through you, we rowed every ocean, with Spanish boots on our feet.
To new worlds with Captain Arab, Johanna's vision when we speak.

Harmonica Solo (Bb)

Verse 3:

When a blue-eyed sun expects a hard rain to fall,
When the hour is late and the wildcat did howl.
When there's one judge to serve, when the autumn leaves fall.

Verse 4:

When the train has carried every word from the back of your memories,
Both the good and the bad, defined by a master thief.
Who stole the Jack from the Joker, who was just looking for a place to eat.

Chorus:

Verse 5:

Every day, something's going to be different,
We all know its been a long hard mysterious climb.
It's all tangled up in your masterpiece of crime.

Chorus:

Outro:

You wrote everything we need, you're an artist, you don't look back.
